*End of Program - Departure Date

All students are required to stay until the end of the program. However, ending dates for the Fall semester vary from one Parisian university to another. Arrangements for early departure may be made for the sole purpose of accommodating the home university second semester calendar.

Some university classes may run beyond the end of the CUPA program. Students are strongly recommended to stay until all classes are over and may be required to do so by their home university whose policy the students must verify.
